Dear Sir:

The Select Committee will publish the Congressional Resource Guide on Narcotics Abuse and Control on April 30, 1978.

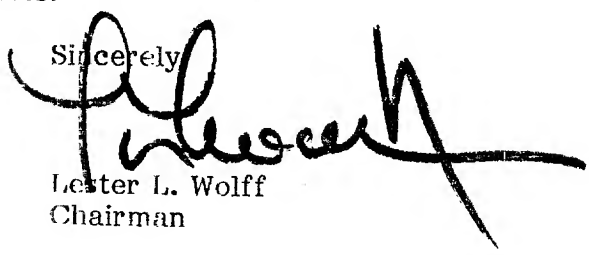

The enclosed page proofs reference your Department's fiscal and organizational mission, which relate to the Federal drug abuse effort.

Please review and comment on these sections no later than April 15, as to assure that the completed document properly represents the information provided to the Committee.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact Mr. David Pickens of the Select Committee Staff at 225-1753.

Thank you for your prompt response and cooperation in making this publication a success.

Sincerely

Lester L. Wolff
Chairman

D. CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY (CIA)

Overall mission.—The CIA, under the direction of the President or the National Security Council (NSC) is authorized to:

- (1) advise the NSC in matters concerning intelligence activities of Federal departments and agencies relating to National Security;
- (2) advise the NSC with regard to intelligence activities of Federal departments and agencies that relate to National Security;
- (3) recommend to the NSC with regard to the coordination of intelligence activities of Federal departments and agencies that relate to National Security;
- (4) correlate and evaluate intelligence relating to National Security and provide appropriate dissemination of intelligence within the Federal Government;
- (5) reduce and disseminate foreign intelligence relating to National Security, including foreign political, economic, scientific, technical, military sociological, and geographic intelligence, to meet the needs of the President, the NSC, and other elements of the Federal Government;
- (6) develop and conduct programs to collect political, economic, scientific, technical, military geographic, and sociological information, not otherwise obtainable, relating to foreign intelligence in accordance with directives of the NSC;

(7) collect and produce intelligence on the foreign aspects of international terrorist activities and traffic in narcotics;

(8) conduct foreign counterintelligence activities outside the United States and within the United States in coordination with the FBI, subject to the approval of the Attorney General;

(9) conduct for the intelligence community services of common concern as directed by the NSC, such as the monitoring of foreign public radio and television broadcasts and foreign press services, the collection of foreign intelligence information from cooperating sources in the United States, the acquisition and translation of foreign publications, and photographic interpretation;

(10) carry out or contract for the research, development, and procurement of technical systems and devices relating to its functions;

(11) protect the security of its installations, activities, information, and personnel; conduct investigations of applicants, employees, and other persons with similar associations with the CIA as are necessary;

(12) carry out special activities in support of national foreign policy objectives as directed by the President or the NSC which are within the limits of applicable law;

(13) perform such other functions and duties relating to intelligence affecting the National Security as the NSC may from time to time direct.

The CIA has no police, subpoena, or law enforcement powers or internal security functions.

Drug abuse and control effort.—The Agency has stated to the Select Committee: "The Central Intelligence Agency has never had a narcotics abuse and control program and has nothing to contribute for inclusion in the Congressional Resource Guide. The Agency's role has been to provide foreign intelligence on international narcotics trafficking to the policymakers and to agencies having responsibility for combating such trafficking into the United States. The Agency's activities consist of identifying foreign growing areas, of illicit narcotic international trafficking routes, and identifying persons engaged in international trafficking."

Category.—Supply Reduction (International Law Enforcement).

Operational years (1969-1976 period).—1969-1976.

Organizational history.—Successor to the wartime office of Special Services, the CIA was established under the NCS by the National Security Act of 1947 (50 U.S.C., Section 402 et seq.) as amended, and functions under that statute; Executive Order 11905 of February 18, 1976; and other laws; regulations; and directives.
